25X1 1. Checked with [] in DD/P to see if he had learned anything more
25X1 from []'s office concerning the inquiry from Robert McManus
25X1 (staff member of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee). (See Journal 25X1 of 31 March.) [] said he had heard nothing further but would be sure to 25X1 contact us if anything developed.

25X1 2. [] called in connection with a cable
25X1 indicating a desire of Congressman Francis E. Walter (D., Pa.) to interview 25X1 [] while he is []. Although [] is most willing 25X1 to cooperate, [] present location is extremely sensitive. [] 25X1 was advised that we would look into the matter and contact him within a day or two.

5. Talked with Grenville Garside, Subcommittee on National Policy Machinery, Senate Committee on Government Operations, inquiring if he had received the outlines on the Soviet and Chinese Communist policy-making machinery. He said he had not but agreed that the suggestion of informal discussion of the proposed report would be most helpful. He will contact us in a few days.

6. Talked with Boyd Crawford, Staff Administrator, House Foreign Affairs Committee, inviting him to an Agency briefing with Al Westphal. He thought this would be most helpful and said he would be delighted to do it. However, he did suggested that we include Roy Bullock and as to timing he would give us a call since the time right now is most difficult.

8. Talked with Miss Zenlet in Mr. Little's office in the State Department concerning the proposed trip of Representative John J. Rooney (D., N. Y.) to Russia this month. She advised that this trip had not been finalized until last Friday. It is not certain what arrangements will be made for briefing this group. She advised that Paul Wilson, staff member, will accompany this group. She also advised that a group including Otto E. Passman (D., La.), J. Vaughan Gary (D., Va.), Hugh Q. Alexander (D., N. C.), and John J. Rhodes (R., Ariz.) will travel to the Far East and Europe between 5 September and 13 October. They will be accompanied by Kenneth Sprankle and Jay B. Howe, staff members.

9. Miss Fraser in Representative Cornelius Gallagher's office telephoned to say that CIA Personnel was seeing a [redacted] tomorrow morning and the Congressman was interested in knowing the results of the interview as he is interested in the man. [redacted] was making application for a position as courier. Personnel ([redacted]) has been asked to call us as soon as they have seen [redacted] in order that we might let the Representative know the outcome of the interview.
